The WE CARE Fund is the charitable arm of the Nassau County Bar Association. It was founded in 1988 by Bar Association President Stephen Gassman. WE CARE is supported through donations and fundraising efforts of the legal profession and the community-at-large. The money is then disbursed through charitable grants to improve the quality of life for children, the elderly, and others in need throughout Nassau County.

Examples of WE CARE Projects & Grants
- Donations of holiday gifts for youth and families in emergency homeless shelters
- Annual holiday party for over 250 disadvantaged & disabled children
- Donations to food pantries and soup kitchens
- Nassau County Coalition Against Domestic Violence
- Nassau County Court Emergency Fund
- Nassau in Nantucket County Legal Aid Society
- Safe homes for abused families
- E.P.A. sponsors for recycling and waste programs
- Breast cancer prevention education in under served communities
- Mammography for underserved and disabled children
- Sonshine Day Care for Cancer Kids
- Children’s garden program for free Nassau County schools
- Sponsorship for Girl Scout troop in minority area and a Boy Scout troop for the physically challenged
- Thanksgiving dinner for the elderly
- Sponsors a Bring Dinner for the Elderly at Hempstead Middle School
- Scholarship grants to high school seniors and law school students
- Supper and Nutrition Council

For further information about WE CARE grants, call Marilyn Ennea at 516-747-4799.

The WE CARE Fund gratefully accepts general contributions as well as donations in memory of a loved one or in honor of a special occasion. Upon receipt of a contribution, all acknowledgment cards are sent. Note: 100% of donations benefit recipients.

Your support and generosity are greatly appreciated.
Marilyn K. Genoa is a principal at Genoa & Associates, a boutique law firm concentrating in the areas of commercial real estate, commercial litigation, and small business representation, including the establishment of cooperatives and condominium associations.

An elected Trustee in the Village of Old Brookville, Marilyn also serves as Deputy Police Commissioner for the Old Brookville Police Department. She has lived in Old Brookville for 30 years. Marilyn and her late husband Paul, to whom she was married for more than 40 years until his death in December 2003, raised their two daughters in the village.

Marilyn is a past president of the Theodore Roosevelt American Inn of Court, the Nassau County Women’s Bar Association, and continues to actively serve on the boards of both organizations. She also has served as Chair of the Nassau County Women’s Bar Association’s Pro Bono Committee’s annual Mock Trial Tournament for the past four years. She has co-chaired the Bar Association’s Community Relations Committee’s annual Mock Trial Tournament for the past four years.

A tireless worker for community and professional organizations, Judge Sher is a long-term member and supporter of the WE CARE Advisory Board. Her firm has earned her top honors from organizations including the New York State Fraternal Order of Court Officers, Nassau County Bar Association. Her leadership has earned her numerous awards and top honors from the Nassau/Suffolk Women’s Bar Association, chaired the Judicial Screening Committee, and is a long-term member and supporter of the WE CARE Advisory Board.

Marilyn is a graduate of Boston University, Adelphi University, and Hofstra University School of Law. She graduated summa cum laude from Queens College and is a Phi Beta Kappa.

Island Harvest

Island Harvest is an exemplary leader in the Nassau’s legal community, serving as a judge and Presiding Justice of the Integrated Domestic Violence Court. Previously Judge Sher served as a Nassau County District Court Judge for 11 years. During that time she was a Trial Assignment Judge and was appointed a Supervising Judge of the Court. In 2001, she was the first woman Judge to be elected President of the Board of Judges. Before becoming a judge, she practiced law as Hempstead Deputy Town Attorney, was a member of the Supreme Court Appellate Division Law Agency and in private practice. She received her law degree from Hofstra Law School.

In support of Island Harvest’s mission to end hunger and reduce food waste on Long Island, the organization is actively involved in education and hunger awareness programs to inform the public about the issue but often unrecognized problem of hunger here, in one of the wealthiest regions of the country, and how individuals, businesses, schools, and commercial food establishments can make a difference.

NCBA Young Lawyers Package

Members of the NCBA Young Lawyers Committee can golf at 8:00 a.m., spend the day, and stay for cocktails and dinner, all for $235. Additional 8:00 a.m. tee times available upon request.

Golf 101 Clinic

If you are not a golfer but want to learn the basics of golf – or just to improve your game – we offer a parallel event. This event will feature a golf pro providing instruction, at beginner and intermediate levels, and use of the practice driving range and putting green. You will also have the option of joining the dinner after your lessons.

Golf 101 will feature:
• A golfer’s gift bag
• One hour of instruction on practice driving range and putting green

$180 for Golf 101 alone
$275 for Golf 101 + Dinner
