

Senior Attorney, Senior Citizens Law Program

Company: Touro Law Center

Job Description:

Senior Attorney, Senior Citizens Law Program; Touro Law Center seeks a Senior Attorney for a new Senior Citizens Law Program. The program will consist of 2 attorneys and a paralegal, providing legal services and information to the elderly in Suffolk County, New York. The program is funded under Title III-B of the Older Americans Act and will handle cases in the areas of public benefits, health care, housing, homelessness, abuse and exploitation and other matters, particularly those related to the needs of homebound or isolated elderly. Community education programs will be a responsibility of both positions. The Senior Attorney will represent clients in these areas of practice and will be expected to represent clients in administrative proceedings and litigation as well as to supervise the paralegal and staff attorney. The Senior Attorney will be responsible for administrative matters, community relations and the development of program policies in concert with the Law Center staff.

Required Skills:

Minimum qualifications include a J.D. or L.L.M. from an accredited law school, admission and good standing to practice law in New York, at least 5 years experience in law practice, preferably on behalf of senior citizens, knowledge of the law in the specified areas of practice and interest in community education and working with law students. Bilingual ability is desirable.

Location:

Touro Law Center, 225 Eastview Drive, Central Islip, New York 11722

Contact Name:

To apply send a cover letter, resume, writing sample and the names of 3 references to: Prof. Marianne Artusio at MarianneA@tourolaw.edu; Potential candidates with questions regarding the position itself, their qualifications, or any related matter are encouraged to contact Prof. Marianne Artusio, at MarianneA@tourolaw.edu or 631-761-7090.

Email Address:

N/A