Regrettably, not all businesses succeed as their owners and partners may have hoped. Our job as a business owner's attorney is to know the governing laws and proceedings. In this program, you will learn the key legal and accounting principles associated with business valuation proceedings as a means to resolve disputes among business owners. Topics will include:

- Contrasts and comparisons of appraisal proceedings for partnerships, corporations, & LLCs
- appraisal process by agreement
- compelled buyouts
- buyout elections in corporate dissolution proceedings
- LLC equitable buyouts
- cash-out mergers
- Recent Court of Appeals precedent addressing valuation proceedings
- permitted and prohibited discounts, including discounts for lack of marketability (DLOM) and lack of control (DLOC)
- accounting methodologies and techniques
