

April 9, 2010

NEW YORK STATE BAR ASSOCIATION
LAWYER ASSISTANCE COMMITTEE
MODEL POLICY

PREAMBLE

The New York State Bar Association is committed to assisting individuals in the legal profession who are dealing with impairment issues that affect performance on the job, whether caused by alcohol, drugs, other addictive behaviors, depression or other mental health conditions.

The NYSBA Lawyer Assistance Committee has drafted the following Model Policy for adoption by law firms/legal departments throughout New York State, with the following assumptions: that early intervention and treatment are fundamental goals, and that adoption of the policy will help to maintain the integrity of the legal profession and the viability of the [law firm/legal department], while protecting clients.

Each law firm/legal department may tailor the policy for its purposes, taking into consideration such factors as size, resources and practice setting. The policy is best used to augment broader policies that cover work conduct, disciplinary procedures, paid leave and health insurance benefits. It should be adopted subject to the regulations of the Family Medical Leave Act, ABA, New York State Human Rights Law, and applicable collective bargaining agreements.

MODEL POLICY for LAW FIRMS/LEGAL DEPARTMENTS
ADDRESSING IMPAIRMENT

I. DEFINING THE PROBLEM

Impairment of a legal professional adversely affects not only that the individual's well-being, but it also directly and adversely affects the [law firm's/legal department's] ability to provide the highest quality legal services to its clients and may lead to professional liability, violations of ethical obligations, professional discipline, a loss of public reputation and criminal prosecution. The chief contributors to impairment of legal professionals are clinical depression and other mental health conditions, dependency on drugs and alcohol, and other addictive behaviors.

II. POLICY STATEMENT

It is the policy of this [firm/legal department] that impairment of [law firm/legal department] legal professionals is inconsistent with its mission.

April 9, 2010

Further, it is the policy of this [law firm/legal department] that impaired legal professionals are in need of assistance and treatment, and that early identification and intervention will provide the greatest hope of overcoming such impairment. This [law firm/legal department] recognizes that impairment is not a moral failing.

The purpose of this policy is to encourage self-identification, self-referral, referral, treatment and recovery. The [law firm/legal department], consistent with applicable law and the Rules of Professional Conduct, will not tolerate unlawful discrimination against a legal professional who has availed himself or herself of the [law firm's/legal department's] resources, as further set forth in this policy.

The [law firm/legal department] shall provide a copy of this policy to all employees and legal professionals.

III. WHO IS COVERED

This policy applies to all [law firm/legal department] legal professionals, including, but not limited to, partners and managing attorneys, associates, and paralegals, subject to any applicable collective bargaining agreement.

The [law firm/legal department] will assist and support legal professionals who voluntarily seek help for impairment or who are directed, as a result of a work performance evaluation, to seek help for impairment. The [law firm/legal department] will permit impaired legal professionals to use paid time off, be placed on a leave of absence, be referred for treatment or otherwise provide accommodations as required by law and permitted consistent with [law firm/legal department] leave policies.

IV. PROFESSIONAL RESPONSIBILITY

It is the responsibility of all legal professionals of this [law firm/legal department] to provide the highest quality legal services to its clients. Impairment due to the use of alcohol or drugs or due to mental health conditions can lead to potential incompetence and/or misconduct which compromises the [law firm/legal department]'s ability to service its clients in accordance with this responsibility.

Attendance and work performance of legal professionals of this [law firm/legal department] will be evaluated.

- Frequent lateness, absenteeism, failure to be on time for meetings and other attendance issues will not be tolerated.
- Failure to meet deadlines, failure to timely return phone calls will not be tolerated
- Disrespect for, or mistreatment of, staff or colleagues will not be tolerated.

If attendance or work performance issues or behaviors are being caused by impairment, this [law firm/legal department] encourages self-referral or referral to its EAP (employee assistance program) or to the New York State Bar Association Lawyer Assistance Program (See, Article VII, below), as appropriate, prior to the initiation of [law firm/legal department] disciplinary action if possible and appropriate. Legal professionals of the [law firm/legal department] who fail or refuse to avail themselves of the opportunity to seek and follow through on treatment will be subject to internal discipline, up to and including possible termination.

April 9, 2010

While a legal professional may have a desire to assist another legal professional with an impairment avoid the consequences of his or her conduct, an attorney is nonetheless obligated under appropriate circumstances to report wrongful conduct of fellow attorneys pursuant to Rule 8.3 of the NY Rules of Professional Conduct (effective April 1, 2009), a portion of which is attached for reference. (See, also, N.Y. State 822.)

V. CONFIDENTIALITY

To the extent possible, this [law firm/legal department] will endeavor to maintain the confidentiality of a legal professional who has self-referred, or who has been referred, to available resources for evaluation and treatment. Please be advised that certain matters may not remain confidential (e.g., a threat to harm yourself or others, future criminal conduct, child abuse), but every attempt will be made to keep a legal professional's personal issues confidential.

The [law firm/legal department] will designate an appropriate person or persons to assist the impaired legal professional with issues of insurance coverage, payment for treatment and covering client matters during treatment, as necessary, and compliance with Return to Work agreements. (See, Article IX, below). Cooperation in all such matters is required, and failure to cooperate may result in [law firm/legal department] discipline, up to and including possible termination.

VI. EDUCATION

The [law firm/legal department] is dedicated to providing continuing education and training to all legal professionals in relation to implementation of this and all policies as well as education related to work/life balance, stress reduction and other such topics that can support outstanding work performance and continuing success of the [law firm/legal department]'s mission.

VII. AVAILABLE RESOURCES

[Law firm/legal department]

Contact: Call (e.g. NAME at x 6021) for information about this policy, its administration and for a confidential referral if appropriate.

April 9, 2010

Referral or Self-referral to Employee Assistance Program: if applicable, insert information about the [law firm/legal department]'s health insurance carrier's Employee Assistance Program -- e.g.

Our law firm health insurance policy includes access to an Employee Assistance Program for the purpose of self-referral or referral of individuals and their co-workers who are impaired, their families. We encourage you to contact the EAP. EAP is a confidential service provided at no cost to covered employees and others who are affected by impairment.

Referral or Self-referral to Lawyer Assistance Program: The New York State Bar Association maintains a statewide confidential Helpline at 1-800-255-0569. The NYSBA LAP provides confidential assistance, including but not limited to, relevant information about impairment, identification of appropriate assessment providers, and assistance in intervention planning, assistance in identifying potential treatment providers and resources for impaired attorneys and CLE.

Confidential communications between a legal professional and a Lawyer Assistance Program are deemed privileged. Section 499 of the Judiciary Law (as amended by Chapter 327 of the Laws of 1993 and as amended thereafter) provides the following:

1. Confidential Information Privileged. The confidential relations and communications between a member or authorized agent of a lawyer assistance committee sponsored by a state or local bar association and any person, firm or corporation communicating with such a committee, its members or authorized agents shall be deemed to be privileged on the same basis as those provided by law between attorney and client. Such privileges may be waived only by the person, firm or corporation that has furnished the information to the committee.
2. Immunity from Liability. Any person, firm or corporation in good faith providing information to, or in any other way participating in the affairs of, any of the committees referred to in subdivision one of this section shall be immune from civil liability that might otherwise result by reason of such conduct. For the purpose of any proceeding, the good faith of any such person, firm or corporation shall be presumed.

VIII. PROHIBITIONS/CONSEQUENCES

Legal professionals are prohibited from on-the-job impairment from alcohol or controlled substances. Any individual who distributes, sells, attempts to sell, transfer, possess or purchase any illegal substance while at work or while performing in a work-related capacity may be subjected to internal [law firm/legal department] disciplinary action including termination, and/or civil penalties and criminal penalties if appropriate.

April 9, 2010

[The law firm/legal department can add to this paragraph particular items relevant to the law firm/legal department]

IX. RETURN TO WORK AGREEMENTS

The [law firm/legal department] may require a legal professional (who has self-referred or who has been referred for treatment) to execute a Return to Work agreement.

If a legal professional -- prior to being subjected to professional disciplinary action or where internal disciplinary action has been held in abeyance during the pendency of treatment -- engages in appropriate treatment, he or she may be required to execute a Return to Work Agreement prior to returning to work.

Such Return to Work Agreement will include:

- verification of the legal professional's participation in a treatment program,
- the legal professional's commitment to maintain the prescribed regimen for continued wellness, to adhere to the firm's code of conduct and professional responsibility, and to participate in aftercare,
- a commitment to undergo drug or alcohol testing if appropriate,
- authorization by the legal professional to appropriate firm representatives to discuss compliance with the foregoing requirement, but limited to a need-to-know basis [and] while maintaining privacy particularly with respect to medical records,
- an acknowledgement that a violation of the Return to Work Agreement will result in immediate sanctions.

(A sample agreement is attached).

APPENDIX A

22 NYCRR Part 1200 – NY Rules of Professional Conduct (effective April 1, 2009)

Rule 8.3 Reporting Professional Misconduct

- (a) A lawyer who knows that another lawyer has committed a violation of the Rules of Professional Conduct that raises a substantial question as to that lawyer's honesty, trustworthiness or fitness as a lawyer shall report such knowledge to a tribunal or other authority empowered to investigate or act upon such violation.
- (b) A lawyer who possesses knowledge or evidence concerning another lawyer or a judge shall not fail to respond to a lawful demand for information from a tribunal or other authority empowered to investigate or act upon such conduct.
- (c) This Rules does not require disclosure of:
 - (1) Information otherwise protected by Rule 1.6; or
 - (2) Information gained by a lawyer or judge while participating in a bona fide lawyer assistance program.

Rule 8.4 Misconduct

A lawyer or law firm shall not:

- (a) violate or attempt to violate the Rules of Professional Conduct, knowingly assist or induce another to do so, or do so through the acts of another;
- (b) engage in illegal conduct that adversely reflects on the lawyer's honesty, trustworthiness or fitness as a lawyer;
- (c) engage in conduct involving dishonesty, fraud, deceit or misrepresentation;
- (d) engage in conduct that is prejudicial to the administration of justice;
- (e) state or imply an ability:
 - (1) to influence improperly or upon irrelevant grounds any tribunal, legislative body or public official; or

April 9, 2010

- (2) to achieve results using means that violate these Rules or other law;
- (f) knowingly assist a judge or judicial officer in conduct that is a violation of applicable rules of judicial conduct or other law;
- (g) unlawfully discriminate in the practice of law, including in hiring, promoting or otherwise determining conditions of employment on the basis of age, race, creed, color, national origin, sex, disability, marital status or sexual orientation. Where there is a tribunal with jurisdiction to hear a complaint, if timely brought, other than a Department Disciplinary Committee, a complaint based on unlawful discrimination shall be brought before such tribunal in the first instance. A certified copy of a determination by such a tribunal, which has become final and enforceable and as to which the right to judicial or appellate review has been exhausted, finding that the lawyer has engaged in an unlawful discriminatory practice shall constitute prima facie evidence of professional misconduct in a disciplinary proceeding; or
- (h) engage in any other conduct that adversely reflects on the lawyer's fitness as a lawyer.

April 9, 2010

APPENDIX B

SAMPLE: TREATMENT AND RETURN TO WORK AGREEMENT

By signing this agreement I accept and agree to the following terms and conditions which will govern my [continued employment with/association with] and my return to work with [law firm/law department].

I. TREATMENT

I acknowledge that my work performance and/or behavior have resulted in the need for intervention and have provided a basis for disciplinary action, up to and including the termination of my employment (or: define nature of relationship with the [law firm/legal department]). As a consequence, and in order to avoid the termination of my employment/expulsion from the [law firm/legal department]), I voluntarily accept the terms of this agreement.

1. I agree to submit to an immediate evaluation by a health care professional of the [law firm/legal department]'s selection or approval.
2. I agree to follow all treatment and aftercare recommendations by that health care professional or treatment program.
3. I understand that I am responsible for all costs associated with the treatment program to the extent they are not covered by insurance.
4. I will authorize regular progress reports to be made to the [law firm/legal department] during treatment (tailor to specific consent).

II. RETURN TO WORK

Clearance for my return to work will be determined by my health care provider and the employer.

Upon my return to work, I agree to abide by the [law firm/legal department]'s policy regarding attendance and work performance, and I agree that my failure to do so may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination/expulsion from the [law firm/legal department].

Upon my return to work, I agree to review treatment and/or aftercare requirements with the designated [law firm/legal department] representative [on a need to know basis], and I agree to strictly comply with such treatment and aftercare requirements. My failure to do so may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination/expulsion for the [law firm/legal department].

April 9, 2010

I will ensure that, within an established time frame, my health care provider will submit regular progress reports to the designated representative at [law firm/legal department] until my treatment is complete, upon which the health care provider will submit a summary report.

I agree to abide by all standards of professionalism, behavior and performance required of legal professionals at the [law firm/legal department], including but not limited to, those set out in its policy and procedure manual.

I agree that this agreement does not guarantee my employment, position or compensation for any period of time. I understand and acknowledge that strict adherence to these terms and conditions are a requirement of my continued work with the [law firm/legal department] and that any violation of the terms of this agreement (including its incorporated standards) may result in [law firm/legal department] disciplinary action, up to and including my immediate termination/expulsion.

By my signature below I confirm that I have reviewed and considered these terms and accept them voluntarily as a constructive part of my recovery. I also acknowledge that these terms are being provided to me as an alternate to the termination of my employment/affiliation. I understand that I may withdraw my consent at any time during the term of this agreement, but acknowledge that withdrawing my consent is a voluntary termination of my employment (consent to my expulsion from the firm).

Signature #1 (at the time of intervention):

Signature #2 (upon return to work, and incorporating aftercare recommendations)