

A. Johnathan Trafimow, Esq.

Educational Background:

Mr. Trafimow graduated from New York University School of Law with a J.D. degree in 1989. He graduated from the University of Chicago with honors and a B.A. in History in 1986.

Experience:

Mr. Trafimow has been a mediator for decades assisting parties in the mediation of all aspects of employment law disputes, including discrimination, retaliation, harassment and wage-hour claims.

ADR Philosophy:

“The cornerstone of Mr. Trafimow’s mediation philosophy is to empower and assist the parties and their counsel to fashion their own solutions to the dispute that has brought them to mediation. To accomplish this, Jon listens carefully to, and empathizes with, the participants in the mediation and is wholly impartial. Jon prepares for mediation thoroughly and will frequently communicate with counsel before the mediation to make the time in the mediation as productive as possible. Jon is facilitative as a mediator. Nonetheless, in the privacy of caucus will “reality-test” the parties, sometimes by discussing with them their alternatives to settlement.”

Current Panels:

Mr. Trafimow presently sits on the NCBA’s Labor & Employment Mediator panel.
