

Alison Keil, Esq.

Educational Background:

University of Michigan BA; Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law (Harlan Fiske Scholarship)

Experience:

Successfully resolved family law, matrimonial, and custody disputes for dozens of families. Certified in divorce/matrimonial mediation in New York and Florida and regularly resolve matters privately and through court appointments.

ADR Philosophy:

“My philosophy is that every family needs a unique and creative resolution to pending disputes. I make it my goal to get to know the values and customs of every family to create an equitable financial resolution together with an appropriate custody arrangement. All cases and disputes can be settled with time, attention, and commitment to meet the needs of all involved.”

Current Panels:

I presently sit on the following mediation panels: New York County, Bronx County, Queens County, and Nassau County
