

Suzanne Levy, Esq.

Educational Background:

Binghamton University, BA from School of Management

- Concentration in Finance

Albany Law School JD

- Basic Mediation Training: 24 hours
- Surrogate's training: 24 hours
- Elder Law/Family Law training: 20 hours
- Community Mediation Services training: 40 hours
- Americans with Disabilities training: 6 hours
- Personal Injury training: 6 hours

Experience:

- Surrogate's Court
- Commercial
- Personal Injury
- Medical Malpractice
- Foreclosure
- Labor/Employment
- Matrimonial
- Elder Law

ADR Philosophy:

"The Mediator role is to support the parties reach a negotiated settlement by facilitating conversations between the parties and identifying areas where the parties are stuck, so that they can move forward and resolve their dispute. The parties' attorney's role in the mediation is to support their client and inform them about the law. Mediation enables parties to be the architects of their agreement and self-determine the outcome of their disputes."

Current Panels:

Nassau County Bar Association Mediator Panel member, Part 146 Mediator for Nassau Commercial, Suffolk Commercial and Surrogate's Court, Westchester Surrogate's Court, 3rd and 4th Judicial District and Special Master for the Appellate Division 2nd Department. Also, a Mediator for CMS Queens County Surrogate's Court and SDNY ADA roster.