ADVERTISING INSERTION ORDER AND CONTRACT

Advertising Policies

- All material must be submitted by the first business day of the month preceding the month of publication.
- The NCBA reserves the right to refuse any advertisement.
- All cancellations must be submitted in writing and received by the first day of the month prior to the date of publication. Cancellation may void frequency discounts. If advertiser has not used the full amount of advertising contracted for, a short rate will be charged.
- If advertiser places more advertisements within contract year than originally contracted and advertiser is eligible for lower rate, advertiser will receive eligible frequency discount on the new contract.
- All advertisers must pay for the first issue in advance before the ad is run.
- The NCBA may stop inserting the advertiser's ad in Nassau Lawyer if the payment of any bill is past due.
- The NCBA is authorized to repeat previous advertisement if new copy is not received by deadline.
- Position of advertisements will be guaranteed only when premium is paid. Special requests will be acknowledged and courtesy extended when possible.
- If a multiple schedule of advertising is placed by an insertion order, and issue months for advertising are not indicated, the NCBA will assume ads will run consecutively unless notified in writing before closing date.
- No agency discounts will be extended.
